

Gun-Free Schools: Are My Children Secure?

A Panel Discussion to Address Growing Concerns Among Parents & Law Enforcement in Wisconsin

Madison, WI – In a world of instantaneous media coverage, we are constantly reminded of real threats to our sense of security. Do you have concerns about your child’s safety when you kiss them goodbye in the morning? If so, you are invited to attend an open and invigorating discussion covering all sides of the school security debate. This event is an open forum for parents of kids in private schools to ask questions of a panel that includes teachers, parents, law enforcement, and concealed carry training experts.

WHO: Katrina Cravy, former FOX Channel 6 Reporter
State Representative Jesse Kremer (R - Kewaskum)
Law Enforcement Supervisors including Washington County Sheriff Dale Schmidt
Concerned Private School Parents and Teachers
Representatives from the U.S. Concealed Carry Association (USCCA)

WHAT: Discussion on “Securing our Private Schools”

WHEN: Saturday, November 12
10:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

WHERE: Kettle Moraine Lutheran High School PAC
3399 Division Rd, Jackson 53037

Rep. Kremer is a father of three young girls who attend a parochial school in Washington County. Jesse is an alumnus of Kettle Moraine Lutheran High School in Jackson and is currently serving his first term as a State Representative for the 59th Assembly District in Fond du Lac, Sheboygan, Calumet and Washington Counties.

Katrina Cravy was formerly the Lead Consumer Reporter for WITI-TV’s Fox 6 in Milwaukee. After nearly 20 years in the industry, Katrina is now providing motivational and educational talks to a wide array of organizations.

The U.S. Concealed Carry Association (USCCA) provides expert advice, product information and education regarding concealed carry issues. They also provide insurance protection for concealed carry holders through their Self Defense SHIELD program.
